

ICOMOS ICAHM

International Committee on Archaeological
Heritage Management

ICAHM 2014 ANNUAL CONFERENCE

Jishou City, Hunan Province, China

October 20 – 23, 2014

The International Committee on Archaeological Heritage Management is holding its Annual Conference in Jishou, China this year to present and discuss:

Universal Standards for Archaeological Heritage Management

The ICOMOS International Scientific Committee for Archaeological Heritage Management (ICAHM) thanks ICOMOS China for co-sponsoring the 2014 Annual ICAHM conference, which will be held at the Jishou University. The university is located in Jishou City, which is the capital of Tujia and Miao Nationalities Autonomous Prefecture of Western Hunan.

In the Year of the Horse, ICAHM hopes to both showcase exemplary case studies of heritage management and develop a comprehensive set of standards for building these practices into future nomination dossiers and management plans.

Call for papers and posters is now open

Your abstract must be 100-300 words in length. The deadline for submission is June 15, 2014. For detailed information please visit the website. Abstracts should be submitted via the website.

www.icomos.org/icahm/jishou_home.html

Registration

Foreign participants from developed countries	$ 175
Foreign participants from developing countries	$ 60
Participants from China	$ 100
Students from developed countries	$ 100
Students from developing countries	$ 40

The registration deadline is July 15, 2014. Please register via:

www.icomos.org/icahm/jishou_home.html

Tours

There will be ample opportunities of tours. Highlights include pre-conference tours to the Jinsha Archaeological Park, the Guanghan Sanxingdui Museum for participants flying through Chengdu; a visit to the stunning Wulingyuan UNESCO World Heritage Site in Zhangjiajie City; and the Buddhist shrines of the Mogao Grottos of Dunhuang and the famous terracotta army of Xi'an as extended tours post-conference.